

Armory Guidelines

1. Only current RRPC members are allowed to check-out firearms and to utilize club ammunition for club-sponsored training.
2. Club weapons must be signed-out by the Club Armorer and/or Assistant Armorer. Firearm charge-out/return will be recorded in the RRPC Firearms Inventory Logbook, maintained by the Armorer.
3. All RRPC weapons charged-out are the direct responsibility of the borrower, and the firearm(s) must be returned in a fully-cleaned and safe operating condition. All returned firearms will be inspected by the Armorer, prior to being accepted back into the RRPC inventory.
4. RRPC firearms should be checked-out for one-day use at RRPC events only, unless a special longer-term arrangement is approved by the Armorer.
5. Those members desiring to check out a RRPC firearm will be required to sign for the firearm in the RRPC Firearms Inventory Logbook, as well as execute an individual RRPC Firearms Checkout Form. Anyone desiring to checkout a RRPC firearm must provide a copy of their valid Virginia Driver's License, with current address and provide current telephone numbers.
6. Request for RRPC firearms need to be submitted to the Armorer at least seven days in advance by current club members.
